

GENERAL ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

CENTRAL STATE UNIVERSITY (Ohio)

AND

KINGSBOROUGH COMMUNITY COLLEGE/CUNY (New York)

In principle, credit earned at Kingsborough Community College should be transferable to any other accredited institution of higher education. In accordance with this principle, Kingsborough Community college and Central State University agree to mutual cooperation in correlating their respective programs for the Associate and the Baccalaureate degrees. The principle beneficiaries are protected by firm arrangements among institutions of higher education and are thereby provided the opportunity of planning a total baccalaureate degree program at the outset of their college education.

Subject to the terms of this agreement, the students who have earned an Associate's degree at Kingsborough Community College are assured admission to Central State University for courses of study completed at Kingsborough Community College. To facilitate transfer of students and to provide them with accurate transfer information at the earliest possible time, articulated programs between Central State University departments and Kingsborough Community College academic units will be developed after this agreement is approved by the cooperating institutions.

PRINCIPLES OF AGREEMENT

Kingsborough Community College and Central State University confirm the following points of agreement, to assure equal treatment of all transfer and regularly enrolled students:

1. The determination of major program requirements for a Baccalaureate degree shall be the responsibility of authorized representatives of Central State University.
2. For admission to Central State University, the student will be required to earn at least a 2.0 overall grade point average on a four point scale. The same criteria required of students for admission to programs having prerequisites other than a 2.0 grade average, will be applicable to Kingsborough Community College students. To be considered for upper division, transfer students must complete 60 transferable semester hours or 90 quarter hours, and have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 (SAT/ACT scores are not required for upper division transfer students).
3. Credits earned at or transferred from Kingsborough Community College will be limited to half of the total credits required for the Baccalaureate degree. If the student switches his/her major to a major not covered by this agreement, transfer credit will be determined by a course-by-course evaluation.
4. Students in majors with articulation agreements are encouraged to complete major preparation courses while enrolled at Kingsborough Community College.

5. No time limit (years) shall be placed on the acceptance of credit transferable from Kingsborough Community College to Central State University unless there is a specific policy of limitation for matriculated students at Central State University.
6. Although remedial and orientation courses do not fulfill graduation requirements, Central State University will, on a course-by-course basis, treat transfer credit from Kingsborough Community College for courses in remediation and orientation in the same manner as comparable courses at Central State University.
7. If limitations on enrollment become necessary in an upper division Central State University program, the University will provide Kingsborough Community College with admission criteria and quotas. Further, Central State University agrees to allocate a specified number of spaces based upon prior information as to the number of qualified transfer students who will be transferring from Kingsborough Community College.
8. If requested by Kingsborough Community College and approved by the students involved, transcripts of the transfer students from Kingsborough Community College will be transmitted to Kingsborough Community College for the purpose of providing counseling of prospective transfer students and providing follow-up information for Kingsborough Community College regarding success of students transferring to Central State University.
9. Kingsborough Community College students transferring to Central State University will be treated the same as matriculated Central State University students of equal class standing when applying for financial aid and in the award and distribution of these funds.
10. Kingsborough Community College students transferring to Central State University will receive consideration for campus housing on the same basis as Central State University students of equal class standing.
11. Kingsborough Community College students transferring to Central State University will receive equal opportunity to pre-register for junior level classes and have access to other student services on the same basis as matriculated Central State University students of equal class standing.
12. Kingsborough Community College and Central State University will assign a staff member to serve as a liaison to assure maintenance of communication between the institutions.
13. Either party may initiate the termination of this Agreement upon six months written notification to the other party. Students in progress will be permitted to complete the program. Review of this agreement should be initiated every four academic years.
